RS Productions in collaboration with Mirari Vos is pleased to announce the Italian theater release on September 14th of IN THE FIRE, revealing its official poster and trailer. IN THE FIRE is a supernatural period thriller produced by Iervolino & Lady Bacardi Entertainment in association with Paradox Studios and Angel Oak Films, directed by Conor Allyn and starring Amber Heard, Eduardo Noriega, Lorenzo McGovern Zaini, and Luca Calvani.

After the warm welcome from the audience at the Taormina Film Fest last June, where it was premiered in the presence of the director and the cast, the cinematic work that marks the return of Amber Heard to the big screen finally arrives in theaters.

In the movie, Amber Heard portrays Grace, an American psychiatrist called to solve the case of a disturbed and possibly possessed child in the late 1800s in Colombia when psychoanalysis was not yet considered a science, especially when practiced by a woman. Instead, superstition and belief in the malevolent prevailed. During her journey, Grace will be tested not only as a doctor but also as a person. In the struggle between science and faith, she must find a way to save the child and his family, as well as herself.

Synopsis: A widowed American psychiatrist without children (Heard) is called to a wealthy farm in Columbia to solve the case of a disturbed child (McGovern Zaini). The child's mother, concerned about the increasingly persistent accusations from the local priest and tormented by mysterious adverse events, had contacted her, fearing that her son might be the devil. When the doctor arrives, she discovers that the boy's mother has died, and the father himself (Noriega) has begun to believe in the child's possible possession. As the woman attempts a psychoanalysis of the young patient, the ominous events intensify, and her "treatment" becomes a race to save the child from the fury of the townspeople... and perhaps even from himself when she herself begins to fear that what is happening in the "hacienda" is connected to something horrific and supernatural.

IN THE FIRE* by Conor Allyn, will be released in Italian theaters on September 14th, distributed by RS Productions in collaboration with Mirari Vos.
