Roma, November 7, 2023 - "Enigma Rol" by Anselma Dell'Olio becomes a small sensation at the box office. The documentary film dedicated to the controversial figure of the psychic Gustavo Rol, a friend of Federico Fellini and Franco Zeffirelli, considered a spiritual master by figures such as Charles De Gaulle, John F. Kennedy, Jacqueline Kennedy, and Giorgio Strehler, achieved the highest average per copy on its first day in theaters, at 1022 euros, according to Cinetel data. It even surpassed the per-copy average of "C'è ancora domani" by Paola Cortellesi (836 euros) and all the new releases on Monday, November 6.

The film was originally released as a special event with a planned screening duration of just three days, from November 6 to 8. However, due to this box office success and in response to the demand from the audience and exhibitors, RS Productions, in agreement with La Casa Rossa, the production company, will extend the number of screens and showtimes.

Enigma Rol is produced by Francesca Verdini and co-produced by Pietro Peligra and Agostino Saccà. It is a La Casa Rossa production with Rai Cinema, in co-production with RS Productions and Pepito Produzioni, and in association with Luce Cinecittà. The film is distributed by RS Productions.
