SYNOPSIS

Marino (Edoardo Pesce) is going through a tough period in his life. He has just separated from his wife Simona (Rosa Diletta Rossi) and can only see his daughter two days a week, on Tuesdays and Fridays. Due to old unpaid taxes, he is forced to close his motorcycle workshop. Increasing financial difficulties and the inability to cope with a new and complicated management of his private life lead him to join a friend's criminal gang. They rob supermarkets, also exploiting his skill as a motorcycle rider... How long will he be able to keep his double life a secret from his ex-wife? How much will his "new venture" jeopardize his relationship with his daughter?
